I loved using this resource during independent work time. It was great for reinforcing skills that I taught previously. My students were very engaged and enjoyed practicing their skills. I would highly recommend this resource! - Aubrie

This was a very engaging resource to teach Functional Math and Life Skills to my students. I loved the levels of differentiation. Thank you! - Monica

Love that there are field of 3 options and also no option as well. Perfect to meet the needs of all my learners. Also love that the hour hand is between numbers to make it realistic. - Courtney
